A LETTER TO FOOTBALL FANS

I want to write this letter to express my appreciation to the many friends and fans who have written such nice letters about me and to hundreds of people who have backed me the last 22 years here at Appomattox. It is very hard to express one's feelings after reading and hearing what a community says about a person. I can only say thank you very much and I appreciate the fine support you have given me by attending the games and backing me and the team over the years.

Our program has grown and our attendance gets better each year. Coaching in a small High School never paid very much. I believe at one time, for coaching all sports, I received 10 cents an hour. The pay is a little better now, possibly a dollar an hour – but a coach never coaches on the high school level for money. He does it because he loves the game, players, fans and satisfaction of seeing a boy become a man.

Football and sports makes a boy a man faster than anything else he can do in life.

I have tried to teach good sportsmanship at all times to my players but players with different tempers will some time lose their heads as will coaches, fans, etc., so my advice to coaches, players and fans after more than 25 years in the business is to read or get a copy of the Virginia High School League book and read it very carefully. About what they expect of coaches, players, fans, etc, it is very strongly written. All concerned should read this book.

I have always been a coach who wants to win and I have never met a coach yet who didn't want to win. I believe you should try to win regardless what game you are playing. I believe that all rules of the game should be observed and I have always encouraged players to follow the rules.

I know that a coach gets the blame for losing games, fights that break out, poor sportsmanship, poor officiating and many other things but I have never intentionally done anything to cause the above things to happen in all my years of coaching. In closing I would like once again to thank you for the fine way you have treated me for the past 22 years and they have been very enjoyable years.

On Tuesday, November 3, the voters of the 4th District of Virginia, with other fellow Americans, will exercise one of our most cherished heritages of American democracy – casting our ballot for a candidate of our choice in a free election.

Current world and domestic unrest demand that we elect a man of unquestioned loyalty to our country and our American way of life; possessed of the highest ideals of integrity and public service with complete dedication to the common good above selfish interest.

W. M. Abbitt has, through the years, given unselfish and dedicated service to our country and the citizens of the 4th District of Virginia in the Congress of the United States, and has exemplified the highest ideals of public service and deserves the support of all citizens of the 4th District.

I sincerely urge all citizens of the 4th District to support W. M. Abbitt and return to the Congress of the United States, a dedicated public servant.

Sincerely,
William W. Cumbey
Lt. Col. USA (Ret)

The Pastor Speaks

IS YOUR HEART IN THE RIGHT PLACE?

Most Americans know that the stock market in America has been in the throes of a deep depressing slump. In mid-May, 1970, a list of the paper losses of certain prominent millionaires was published in a news magazine. These lists showed what the prominent man had suffered in financial losses in recent months in contrast with what they would have held at the record highs of the stock market. Billionaire computer magnate H. Ross Perot of Dallas, Texas, had a billion and a half dollars of stock in his electronic data systems corporation at its peak. As of mid-May his stock worth had declined to a mere $615,000,000. The stock worth of James J. Ling of Lingtemco – Vought had declined from 49.3 million dollars to a measly 8 million! Charles B. Thornton of Litton Industries suffered a paper loss from 167 million dollars down to a shocking 30 million.

No one fears that such millionaires as these will go hungry. Even many of you, however, haven't forgotten what happened when many wealthy men of the '30's jumped out of Wall Street office buildings when their private financial world crashed during the stock market crash of the depression. Thus far there is no nation-wide trend in suicides attributed to the stock market decline. However, there is plenty of room for warning. Jesus said in Matthew 6:19 - 24, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal." When men accumulate all of their treasures for earthly consumption, they really don't have anything. When this earthly treasure disappears, as it so often can, all they are left with is a rather sickly empty feeling in life. Jesus warned us to store up treasures not on earth, but treasures in heaven. These are treasures that come to us by initial faith in Jesus Christ and by whole-hearted serving Him, treasures that don't rot or rust, treasures that can't be stolen. No wonder man is called God's greatest creation.

In His Own Image

Yet, fantastically wonderful as is the physical creation of man, he is looked upon as the crown of God's creation for still a greater reason: what he is rather than how he is made. The writer of Genesis says it one way: "So God created man in his own image . . ." (Genesis 1:27). The writer of Hebrews, quoting the psalmist, says it another: "Thou didst make him a little lower than the angels" (Hebrews 2:7). Both of these men are making approximately the same affirmation: there is a likeness, kinship, or similarity between the personality of man and the basic personal nature of God.

This does not mean that man is the same as God or equal to him in any way. It does mean, however, that man in his very essence – or that which makes him man – bears in an incomplete and finite way the characteristics which we find in a complete and infinite way in God. As Reuel Howe has put it, "Blurred and distorted though the image of God in man is, still the mark of the hand of the Divine Craftsman is on him."

Everything in Subjection

We may "see" God in nature, "hear" him in the sounds of the earth, and find his "footprints" in a hundred thousand different places, but in man we get the most accurate picture of all. In one man – Jesus Christ – the picture was not even blurred or distorted.

There is another reason why we call man God's greatest creation. Not only is man exalted in what he is created to be, but also in what he is created to do. Man is created to put "everything in subjection under his feet." He is intended to rule over the rest of creation for the Creator.

There are then two facts for us to note about the nature and purpose of man. First, there is man's privileged position in regard to the rest of creation. No other creature has been so blessed as man. What a privilege to be created with a kinship to God and a mandate to rule God's creation for him.

There is a second fact, for with the privilege there is also a responsibility too. Man is blessed by God so that he may be blessing. He is given powers, advantages, and endowments so that he may fulfill God's plan and purpose. He is therefore the creature with the highest privileges and also the highest responsibilities. That's why he's called the "crown of God's creation." That's what man is.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

WHAT IS MAN?

Lesson for July 19, 1970

Background Scripture: Genesis 1: 26 through 2:25; Psalms 8; Matthew 10:29-31; Acts 17: 26-28; 1 Corinthians 15:45-50. Devotional Reading: Psalms 8

The birth of a human being is one of the most common, yet at the same time most miraculous and mysterious processes of God's creation. The more that science learns about it, the more we stand in awe at this evidence of God's creative masterpiece.

Consider facts such as these: . . . A new human being begins as a tiny cell which is 200-or-so days increases to a fantastically complex organism of 200 million cells – a billion times greater than its original weight.

. . . In the nucleus of this single cell is a kind of coded blueprint for the stage-by-stage development of a complete human body.

. . . When the baby is born it is pushed into the world by a one-hundred-pound propulsive force.

. . . In a few short seconds the new-born baby must make a great many unbelievable drastic adjustments: from a body temperature of 98 degrees F. to a room temperature of some twenty degrees lower; from a totally dark environment to one of blinding light; from a complete dependence for oxygen and blood upon the mother to the sudden, unpracticed use of its own lungs and heart for that purpose.

These are the treasures that our Lord commands us to store up.

Jesus said, "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." You are likely not a millionaire, but you do have a treasure in this life. Make certain that your treasure is anchored in the Lord Jesus Christ and in your service to him, lest all that you have worked and striven for evaporates with the close of a stock market, or the drought of midsummer.

More people are investing with this savings certificate than any we've ever offered.

There must be a reason . . .

The success of Golden Savings Certificates has many reasons — but the basic one is that most people have a thousand dollars or more in their family savings. And they can't find a safer, more profitable way to invest it than in these First Federal certificates.

For every thousand dollars you put in Golden Savings Certificate you know you'll earn $59.20 in just twelve months.

There is another important reason why so many people have switched to Golden Savings Certificates: because only First Federal has them. And more and more people in this part of Virginia are discovering how pleasant and convenient it is to save at First Federal. Why don't you?
